

THE ARIZONA REPUBLIC

azeconomy

April 21, 2013

Lender names ex-prosecutor CEO

Biltmore Loan, an upscale collateral lender in Scottsdale, has named veteran attorney and former prosecutor Harriet Bernick as chief executive officer.

Prior to joining Biltmore Loan, Bernick worked in the lawyer-regulation division of the State Bar of Arizona, resolving ethics complaints filed by consumers and third parties and prosecuting attorneys alleged to have engaged in ethical misconduct.

Before that, she worked as an assistant U.S. attorney representing federal agencies in medical-malpractice and employment actions, as a legal adviser for public affairs managing media inquiries for the U.S. Attorney for the district of Arizona, and as a federal prosecutor. While working as an attorney, Bernick also owned a jewelry business.

Biltmore extends loans collateralized by jewelry, artwork, and other tangible assets.

biltmoreloan.com